June 2016

2016 Conference Edition

We're just about 6 weeks away from the 2016 Conference in Boca Raton, Florida, everyone's favorite Liturgy of Peace, to be directed by Christopher Kypros.

Take Chris' lead and wear your favorite tropical shirts because it gets quite serenely warm in Boca Raton in July.

A quick reminder that below is a form asking that you forward a photo and roster of your choir along with a $50 fee to be included in the commemorative album as well as a form to order a recording of the liturgy.

Full Registration Packet

One is attached but you can also access it at Click here for the Choir Packet link

Important notice regarding your hotel reservation:

The Marriot Crocker Center is quite reasonably priced compared to some other conferences. At $119 per night, it also offers full complementary breakfast! Conference attendees, please go ahead and make your hotel reservations. The room block deadline is approaching. In order to receive Group Rates, please register by June 28, 2016.

Please access the following website for additional sheet music you will need:

President's Message

Dear Choir Friends,

Greetings in Christ! I hope you and your families celebrated a blessed Pascha and that you are now ready to start thinking about our 40th Annual Choir Conference to be held at St. Mark Greek Orthodox Church in Boca Raton, Florida, on July 28-31, 2016. We will be singing Chris Kypros' arrangement of the Divine Liturgy, the Liturgy of Peace, with Chris conducting. The Guest Organist will be Jim Bostoph, and the Youth Director will be Stacey Norton of Orlando, Florida. His Eminence, Metropolitan Alexios, will be unable to join us this year but He is sending His representative, His Grace, Bishop Demetrios of Xanthos, who will be celebrating the Divine Liturgy with us.

This is the seventh time our Federation is singing this arrangement and it holds a special significance at St. Mark. A connection to this liturgical arrangement lies with Dr. Steve Aliapoulios, who passed away two summers ago. The first time the SFGOCM ever sang the Liturgy of Peace, we were hosted by St. Catherine Greek Orthodox Church in West Palm Beach, Florida. Steve was the choir director there for many years. But enough looking back! Looking ahead to the conference weekend and beyond, Chris Kypros will be introducing us to some hymns from his NEW arrangement, the Liturgy of Hope!!

Please consider nominating members of your parish for the following:

1. The Gallos/Zanakos Music Scholarship: I consider this one of the crown jewel projects of our Federation. It is a monetary award given to a student seeking an education (either major or minor) in music. Awards are presented annually at our conference. Information is available on the following website: <http://sfgocm.goarch.org/about/scholarship100.html>
2. The Patriarch Athenagoras Service Award is presented annually to eligible members of the Federation who have given outstanding service BOTH to their home parish AND to the Southeastern Federation. Current application material is attached to this email and general information is available on the SFGOCM website.

Deadlines for both of these awards are not for another few weeks so plenty of time to nominate a worthy individual.

Our Organist for this Year's Conference

Jim Bostaph Bio May 28, 2016

Jim was born and raised in Erie, PA. He began piano lessons at the age of 6 and played in the orchestra and stage band through junior and senior high school. He also sang in the chorus and was selected for numerous district and regional choir and orchestra conferences. He studied string bass starting in junior high and also played bass guitar and keyboards in rock bands through college and beyond. Jim met his wife of 37 years, Barbara Crowe, while they were playing together in a band.

Jim majored in piano and organ with a minor in voice at Westminster College. He started playing professionally in churches at 15. Jim's full-time job is President of Black Goose Chimney. He is also a national instructor for the Chimney Safety Institute of America. Jim enjoys wine tasting & collecting. He and Barbara moved to Newport News, VA in 1977 and have 2 girls, Emily & Sarah – 24 & 27. They also have 3 cats and Molly the dog.

This is Jim's sixth time playing for the FGOCM choir conferences and third time with Chris Kypros. Jim has been the organist for Saints Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church in Newport News, Virginia for the past 25 years.

Athenagoras Award

At this time, it has been our custom to honor those who have made exemplary contributions to the music ministry of our Metropolis. These members are nominated by you and selected by a committee from our Federation.

We all have choir members who have served many years in their individual communities and are deserving of recognition within their parishes. We seek to honor those whose contributions extend beyond their own parish and have had an impact on the Metropolis music program.

The National Forum established the Patriarch Athenagoras Medal for Distinguished Metropolis Service in 1996. This is a National award, given by the National Forum and administered by the Federations.

The Federations may, at their discretion, annually select up to three church musicians from within their jurisdiction as award recipients. The recipients may be from any of the following three categories.

1. The professional musician (composer, conductor, organist, psalti, singer), living or posthumous, whose musical contributions to the Metropolis merit recognition.
2. The non-professional musician (committee chair, Federation president, project chair), living or posthumous, whose musical contributions to the Metropolis merit recognition.
3. The priest, living or posthumous, whose musical contributions to the Metropolis merit recognition.
