Conference Edition

Are you ready?

We only have 3 weeks left before our Conference. So, besides getting the hotel reservations, transportation, hair cut, the small portions of toiletries, the bag of paper clips, the pencil, music, choir robe, GPS, camera and other last minute things, that gives us just a couple of weekends to practice the Cardiasmenos Liturgy before the composer fine tunes it in New Orleans.

It is also a good idea to print out a copy of the attachments to this Notable Notes because they contain schedules and details. If someone is going that does not have access to a computer, please print it out for them, too.

This is a conference not to be missed. We are having a CMI on Thursday afternoon to learn how to use and take care of our voices with well known opera singer and voice instructor, Joseph Dupre Quigley, a native of New Orleans. Steven Cardiasmenos will discuss hymn preparation from the choral singer's perspective and Fr. Anthony Stratis will enlighten us on aspects of the Divine Liturgy that will help us internalize this information designed to make us better singers.

Rehearsals start Friday, June 24, at 9am at the cathedral. If you are able to come a day early or stay an extra day, I recommend it as New Orleans is a very exciting city. In addition to many wonderful restaurants, there are many, many great artists in this area, jewelry, painting, glass blowing, just to mention a few. Much of the art work is very reasonably priced. Friday evening is an open evening and you will be free to wander around the French Quarter, eating and drinking. Stores and galleries are open late, so you can admire their work.

If you have any last minute concerns or questions, please address them to:

From Vicki Pappas, National Chairman

Here is information about a new School of Byzantine chant being established in the Direct Archdiocesan District by His Eminence, Archbishop Demetrios, meet the needs of clergy and parishes. The school's mission is to teach Byzantine Music to anyone interested in learning this ancient form of ecclesiastical chant.

The School's web site is located at <http://asbm.goarch.org>.

There is a listserv you can subscribe to and also a place to express interest in the classes that will be offered. Training will be available in both English and Greek, depending on the needs of the students.

Archdeacon Panteleimon is assisting His Eminence in the development of this School.

Metropolis of Atlanta
Southeastern Federation of Greek Orthodox
Choirs and Musicians
Patriarch Athenagoras I Award

Winter, 2010

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The time has come once again to consider who among your choir members should be recognized for their dedication to the Music Ministry of our Church. The Patriarch Athenagoras I Award was initiated by the National Forum of Greek Orthodox Church Musicians and established in 1996 as a means of giving national recognition to meritorious individuals whose contributions to the Music Ministry of the Church are worthy of distinction. The award is given as a national recognition to meritorious individuals in each metropolis whose contributions on a local, as well as a metropolis level, to the Music Ministry of the Church, are worthy of distinction. Normally this would involve being an active participant in the choir federation as an officer, committee member, conduct area music workshops, etc.

Each year at the conclusion of our choir conferences three individuals are recognized for their meritorious service. Each recipient shall have significantly contributed talents and/ or service to the development and perpetuation of the Greek Orthodox Church Choirs and Musicians of the Atlanta Metropolis.

The deadline for 2010 nominations is June 30, 2010. The nomination form and biographical data cover sheet are available in this issue of Keynotes and on the Federation web site: www.sfgocm.org. Guidelines are available on the Federation website or by request. A letter with the nomination form and biographical data cover sheet should be mailed to:

Stanley Evdemon
Athenagoras Award
9216 Estate Cove Circle
Riverview, Florida 33578
stan.evde@verizon.net

Nominations for this prestigious award should be received by our Athenagoras Award Committee no later than the deadline date in order to be considered as an eligible candidate. Late nominations will be placed on file and reviewed by the committee in 2011 for next year.

We look forward to receiving your nomination and seeing you in New Orleans, Louisiana!

Yours in His Service,

Stanley Evdemon
